

How do you know if he's not that into you:

1. He is making no, or little effort
2. He keeps avoiding introducing you to his family and/or friends
3. You are only good for "one" thing
4. He often lets you down
5. He avoids physical contact in public and private
6. HE IS DATING OTHER WOMEN
7. He doesn't want to meet your family and friends
8. He tells you that "he is not the relationship type" "I just want to be friends" or "this is not going to be serious"
9. He makes you feel as though he is really not into you or the relationship

Please ladies, don't let your need for love and infatuation blind you. if he is not into you, then he's not good enough for you either.
